

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. This consolidation of the media into the hands of a few very biased men will eventually result in the total destruction of our democracy. Soon there will be no news in the mass media only the propaganda of media giants like Sterling.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
